SALTERRAE, 1993. Condition: Nuevo. Bastante de crónica, un poco de análisis, su dosis de tología e incluso algo de sermón tiene este Cuaderno sobre la Conferencia de Santo Domingo. Nacida ésta de la confluencia de distintos propósitos y preparada durante casi un decenio abundante en tensiones, la reunión había de ser especial. y lo fue. Tal vez por eso, se han publicado sobre ella informaciones que parecen tratar de conferencias distintas. En vista de ello, se ha querido aquí documentar minuciosamente cada interpretación y situar debidamente los hechos en los contextos que puedan aclararlos. ANDRÉS TORNOS, jesuita, es profesor de teología en la Universidad Pontificia Comillas, donde imparte la asignatura "Evangelización y Culturas". Ha realizado diversos trabajos de enseñanza e investigación en Argentina, Perú, México, Colombia y Chile, donde participó además en trabajos de reflexión relacionados con la preparación de la Conferencia de Santo Domingo. Sobre esta preparación ha dirigido un Seminario de Estudio en el Instituto "Fe y Secularidad" y ha publicado artículos en las Revistas Mensaje (Santiago de Chile), Carthaginensia (Murcia) y Crítica (Madrid), colaborando además en la obra Por los Caminos de América (dirigida por G. Arroyo y editada por Ediciones Paulinas, Santiago de Chile, 1992). Ha asistido a la Conferencia del Episcopado Latinoamericano en Santo Domingo.
