

The Fatal Line (Paperback)

By Derek Maitland

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Fatal Line is Derek Maitland s gripping expose of collusion, corruption, perjury and betrayal that triggered the biggest, most wide-ranging public inquiry ever held into the commercial television and radio industry of Australia -- and why virtually no Australian, nor anyone else, has ever read or heard of it. The drama began with a defiant stand by TV reporter Maitland and assistant news editor John Pemberton at Sydney s TCN Channel Nine against a belligerent, unethical and previously unheard-of act of news suppression - and attack on the strict independence of the station s news service -- forced by the advertising sales manager . But the impact of the two-man revolt went far beyond Channel Nine itself, leading to an exhaustive six-month public inquiry by the federal Broadcasting Control Board into why, not just Channel Nine, but the entire Australian commercial broadcasting industry, blacklisted a vital parliamentary report that directly touched the lives of millions of Australian consumers. The report dealt with the findings of a joint federal parliamentary investigation into the highly questionable advertising and marketing practices, and...
