Excerpt: .was no end to the wickedness o that crew o Black Smugglers and robbers. But noo the hale country will rise again them, and there will be an end to them. While she was speaking thus Richard Maxwell looked at her from under his hoary eyebrows. There was a grey pallor about his countenance that did not look bonny in the full light of the morning as it came into the cave, for the sun had now worn round so that it shone upon the face of the cliff. Aye, lass, he exclaimed, rising to his feet, these are words wise beyond your years. They shall be rooted out, for the destruction o the bonny onstead that has been hame to me and that reared my bairns. This I swear and declare before the Almighty. Noo, sit doon, faither, said May, anxiously, dinna walk...
