The Wax Girl and the Copper Soldier (Paperback)

By Grimsby Grey

Mulberry Bark, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A love story between the unlovable by Grimsby Grey. Once upon a time after the Mexican Revolution, the disfigured soldier Teggrum Barros could never love anyone without harming them. He lived as a recluse, because he was not an ordinary man, but partly made of copper metal, which made him destructively strong; rusted from age; and his metallic armor heated up as hot as fire. The world was too fragile for him. Just as other monsters hide in bell towers and windmills, the soldier hid in a sailboat, where he spent his time drawing, and he planned to drown himself in the sea. But before he left the lonely world, he felt a yearning to travel to the mysterious island Fiel to create his last piece of art, where, perhaps, he would find his true love. This gentle, peculiar, lyrical fairytale transports the reader to the magical land Fiel, in the Gulf of Mexico, and questions what it means to be alive, in love, and sometimes trapped inside yourself. A surreal and beautiful blend of Frankenstein, Franz Kafka, and The Wonderful Wizard...
