In a World of Their Own Eight Matrixes of Superstar Performers of Perpetuity

By Frederick K. Lancaster Ba Jd

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 89 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.2in. x 0.3in. What does the life of a superstar performer look like? The question can be confusing. Does it look like fame, fortune, prestige, achievement or all of the above? The qualities that most have measured stardom today do not at all look familiar. In A World of Their Own, however, Frederick Lancaster explores and affirms eight matrixes—qualities personifying legendary superstar performers. Words such as standards, integrity, trust, passion, preparation, talent, support system, community, as well as other words synonymous to system of care management that may have the reader think, I understand the meaning of these words, but does he? The reader is introduced to terms such as, disconnector, connector, independent contractor, and gofer as words used to enhance the reader's in-depth understanding of support systems associated with the circle of influence of superstar performers. These concepts are necessary for the reader to comprehend the managerial operations of organizational success, but the concepts also help the reader see clear that not all support systems are created equal unless they are intimately connected to shared values of the superstar performer. With thought-provoking analysis, Lancaster sheds a completely...
