Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Colorado Geological Survey: Boulder The population of the two districts has been small for several years past. In the Monarch district are the permanent villages of Maysville, Garfield, and Monarch. In the summer of 1911 there were perhaps thirty people in and near Shavano, and some what fewer in 1910. When the North Fork valley was visited in 1912 Shavano was practically deserted. Whitepine and North Star are the only inhabited villages in the Tomichi district. The former town of Tomichi is now deserted and but few buildings remain; many were razed by a snowslide several years ago. Monarch, Garfield, and Maysville are on a branch of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad. A mixed train runs to Monarch daily from Salida which is distant about 20 miles. Garfield is also reached by tri-weekly stage, over a good wagon road, from Salida. A daily stage runs from Sargents, on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, to Whitepine, a distance of about 12 miles. In the summer the Tomichi district is also accessible from Monarch by way of the Monarch Pass wagon road and a trail across the range north of the pass.
